

FASHIONISM

Fashion: “Something in the current mode, manner, or way of looking or acting”

(From ‘facto’....”a making”)

Fascism: “A doctrine of centralized authority, national, or international, regimentation and censorship in opposition to democratic process and a tendency toward autocratic control”

(From ‘fascis’....a bundle, or crowd)

~ FASHIONISM ~

The regulation of a way of looking or acting and the concomitant repression of differences vis-à-vis that prevailing style, as perpetuated by either a central authority or a mass expression
